Call for Nominations – NWRI's Clarke Prize for Excellence in Water Research

The National Water Research Institute (NWRI) of Fountain Valley, California, is pleased to begin the nomination process for the fourteenth recipient of the Athalie Richardson Irvine Clarke Prize. The prize, which includes a gold medallion and $50,000 award, will be presented on Thursday, July 12, 2007, in Orange County, California.

NWRI established the Clarke Prize in 1993 to award outstanding individuals who are significantly contributing toward any of the following areas: the discovery, development, improvement, and/or understanding of the issues associated with water quality, quantity, technology, or public policy.

The Clarke Prize has been designated by the International Congress of Distinguished Awards as one of the most prestigious awards in the world. It is one of only a dozen prizes that awards scholarly and practical achievements in water research.

Enclosed is a call for nomination for the 2007 Clarke Prize. Nominations are due by March 1, 2007. Additional information about the Clarke Prize, including nomination procedures and previous recipients, may be found on our website at www.nwri-usa.org/ClarkePrize.
